RAYS' RUN
April 21, 2013

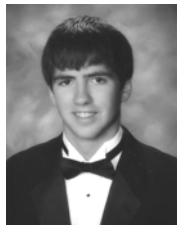

This event is a tribute to Ray Caddy Jr. and his father Ray Caddy. Ray Jr. believed in keeping his mind and body strong. In his twenty-five years of life he accomplished more than anyone could imagine, including his work with young runners, receiving a BA from Syracuse, and learning Japanese and their culture. Ray Sr. passed away in March, 2009 and it seems fitting to include him as he worked very hard to make this race an organized and fun event. He was always a strong advocate for quality education. He served on the Kingston School board and worked in education at IBM for part of his career.

At the KHS Senior Athletic Awards this spring it will be a great experience for graduating high school runners to be honored with a scholarship award. Our winners have emulated all the fine qualities that Ray Jr. possessed.

A Scholarship account has been established in Ray's name at KHS and in 2012 five $500 scholarships were awarded to:

Patrick
Cahill

Taylor
Davis

Ian Detweiler

Kassandra Ellsworth

Sean
Lyons

One of our goals is to increase the number and amount of these awards over time.
