

The Little Ones Learning Center, a FREE non-profit early literacy center for children 0-6, is conducting the 2015 Towpath Run, a 6K (3.7- mile), Race/Walk for Literacy, Sunday, Sept. 27, 2015. The race/walk will be run point to point from Alligerville to Accord to raise money for the program. The race is once again one of the races in the Ontario Runners Club Grand Prix series for 2015.

Runners and walkers will meet at the Accord community center to register from 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. Runners and walkers will be bussed to Alligerville for the run back to Accord. Walkers will start at 9 a.m., and runners will start at 9:15 a.m.

The race will be run along Towpath Road, a scenic, wooded lane with views of the Catskills, and up the hill from the actual towpath used for ferrying boats along the former D&H Canal. Accord and Alligerville were stops on the canal. There will be no parking in Alligerville, and all runners and walkers will be required to be bussed to the start point from Accord.

Registration can be completed at www.littleoneslearningcenter.org via RunSignUp. Open the calendar page and click "Sign Up" for easy online registration or simply return this completed form to register for the event. Pre-registration by Sept. 21 - $18. Day of Race - $20.

Prizes will be awarded to the Top Three male and female finishers in age groups: 14 & under, 15-19, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, 60 and over, Town of Rochester residents and walkers. The community center is located a few blocks off Route 209, about six miles south of the intersection of routes 209 and 213 in Stone Ridge and about four miles north of the intersection of routes 44/55 and 209 in Kerhonkson.
